County Requirements

Policy regarding absence from mandatory county events or deadlines

In order to be excused from a countywide mandatory 4-H event or deadline, the absence or emergency must be reported to the county 4-H personnel immediately. Emergency circumstances may result in a case by case review by the 4-H personnel, with the decision made solely by the 4-H personnel with input, as needed from the 4-H Committee and/or a Fair Rules Committee. Notifications received in a timely manner or by 10:00 a.m. of the next working day will be looked upon more favorably than those received after that time frame.

County Requirements

4-H Eligibility in the Warren County Junior Fair Junior Fair eligibility will be achieved by meeting the following requirements:

1– Each person exhibiting as a 4-H Member must have been enrolled in the 4-H program and declare the project(s) they plan to take no later than 4:30 p.m. on April 1st of the current year

2– Member must complete project requirements as outlined in the Warren county 4-H project guidelines (included with 4-H Project book) including attending the mandatory livestock interview on June 28, 2025.

3– 4-H Members must have attended at least six (6) meetings per club in which they are registered. Clubs must conduct a minimum of eight (8) meetings between January 1 and Fair. Members who fail to attend six club meetings will not be able to enter projects listed in that club.

4– The 4-H member (or their representative) must turn in a completed Junior Fair entry for to the Extension office by June 15, 2022. Entry forms are available through 4-H Advisors in late May. All entry forms must be signed by the exhibitor before they are turned in to the Extension office.

Cloverbuds

Cloverbuds are welcome to attend all club events & activities, but will not compete at the fair.

Cloverbuds do not need to complete the same requirements as older members. There is no meeting attendance or presentation requirement. However, Cloverbuds are welcome to do a presentation if they like.

Our club will offer a special cloverbud activity during our Thursday meetings.

We will also hold some Saturday Cloverbud activities with activities designed for younger members.

Cloverbuds can participate in a project interview on July 12. Those who participate will earn a medal, but it is not required.

Family Guide

2025 4-H family guide is available at <https://ohio4h.org/familyguide>. Returning members should have received a hard copy in the mail.

Visit Project Central to learn about other 4-H projects. You can see a sample of each project book and project requirements.

<https://projectcentral.ohio4h.org/>

Book Ordering

Each member needs to purchase a llama/alpaca record book. $8

New members will need a llama/alpaca resource book. Families can share this book. $19

You can purchase llama/alpaca books from the club tonight. If you are taking other projects, the club can order these books for you or you can order them yourself online. If you order online, books are more expensive and you will pay shipping fees.

Let Christine know if you would like the club to order any additional project books.

Meeting Host

Meeting Hosts arrive 20 minutes before meeting to set up and provide snacks/drinks for after the meeting.

Hosts also stay to clean up at the end of the meeting.

Two families can share this responsibility.

Sign up sheet is on table.
